

Weekly Citizen

HUGHES & McCRIGHT, PUBLISHER

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
Daily Citizen, per year..... $ 6.00
Weekly, 2.00

Denver gets the next national emblem of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Bresel, the anarchist who killed King Humbert, has been sentenced to solitary confinement for life.

A competent authority places the loss of timber in Colorado this year for record fire at $10,000,000.

The annual value of all property in California is $20,250,000. The value of railroad property is $47,717,750.

Steps were taken at the Grand Army of the Republic encampment looking to an investigation by the president of the national pension bureau.

The last time the democratic party tried a platform bucking out of a way was in 1894. Result, a republican majority in the electoral college of the U.S.

A sister's birthday, while by the mother of George Sheridan before she died shortly before his residence on Kiley.

Schuster has been up before the post office examining a boy, who began his thinking stones. He was mounted and costs, and appealed to the district court.

J. Francisco Chaves, the progressive businessman and politician of Valencia county, after a business trip to Santa Fe, came in from the north last night, and is around among city friends today.

Frank Flood and sister came from Gallup this morning. Mr. Flood expects to meet his brother from the east, who will engage in business in Albuquerque. The Citizen hopes Mr. Flood will be successful in his business enterprise, as he identifies himself with this town.

The Citizens representative was out among the members of the Italian colony this morning, and informed that the C. G. Co. Democratic society would have in the fair cause display and parade the finest and most elaborate float ever put together for such an occasion in the southwest.

Some one of the numerous bicyclists, who operate in this city, has stolen the wheel belonging to Billy Adams. Night before last the owner had occasion to visit the 8-spot and to that resort rode a wheel. After attending to his duties on the inside, he appeared on the sidewalk and found his wheel gone. It is an "Anderson," and while it has been in use for the past few years, it is nevertheless one of the stand-bys of the city.

Robert Kuhns, clerk in the First National bank and one of Albuquerque's popular young men, has gone to California to spend his vacation at the coast resorts.

H. Fisher, of the Water Supply company, was at the depot this morning to meet his wife and children, who arrived from San Francisco. They will make this city their home.

Mrs. Grace Davis, when attending the University here for several terms, was a passenger on the west bound train last night, going to Winslow. A. T.

Mrs. Colburgh and her daughter, Mrs. O. Gottsch, have returned to their home at Minneapolis, Minn. Their stay here was for the benefit of Mrs. Gottsch's health, was productive of very good results.

D. J. A. Santiago of El Paso, and Francisco C. Morales a prominent flour miller of Ures, Sonora, Mexico, were passengers on the south bound train last night, returning to their homes after a business trip to Chicago.

The Citizen acknowledges complimentary ticket to the sixth annual fair of the Union Fair association, which will be held at Springer, N. M., from September 24th to 26th. Henry Sturges, president, and M. M. Salazar secretary.

E. C. Perkins and family left for the City of Mexico, where they will live in the future, on the midnight train. They were accompanied by the good wishes for their future prosperity and happiness by their hosts of friends in this city.

A pair of lady's black kid gloves were left at the sister of Mrs. Mcbright. Owner can have by calling and paying for this notice.

Miss Etheline Flournoy and her friend, Miss West, left this morning for St. Louis, after spending the summer in this city.

J. K. Kelly, the popular night ticket agent at the railway station, has returned from a short vacation spent out west near Ash Fork, A. T.

Miss Marian Lupton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lupton, has gone to Santa Fe, where she will attend the Sisters of Loretto academy.

J. K. Poyas, brother of Mrs. George W. Johnson and the Misses Poyas, is in the city, and is the cinematographer at the law office of Ferguson & Gillette.

Conductor W. H. Barney and wife will leave tonight for Niagara Falls. Before returning to the city, they will visit their old home at Malone, N. Y.

Nobie S. Trimble, who was at Chicago and New York on business and pleasure, has returned to the city. He reports having had a wonderful time.

The board of county commissioners held a session this afternoon and appointed the towns of registration for the several parishes for the November election.

The son of C. D. Ward, of the Minneapolis rooming house, while riding on Broadway this evening, fell and hurt himself and had to be carried to the sidewalk, but shortly recovered and was taken home.

A numbers' meeting of the W. C. T. will be held at the home of Mrs. Grant, 611 south Broadway, to-morrow Evening at 5 o'clock. An interesting program will be rendered and all members and friends are invited.

J. E. Hunter, the well-known division superintendent, with headquarters at Las Vegas, came in from the north in his "Nine-spot" last night, and is resting up here to-day. He will leave for the south to-morrow morning.

Judge Crumpacker is receiving congratulations to-day from his friends for his recent marriage. The citizens extend congratulations with the rest of the friends and rejoice the lucky meet.

From Thursday's Daily.
Miss Winnie Harwood has gone to California for the benefit of her health.

Rev. T. C. Bechtel and his estimable wife, who have been summering in the east, are expected home Saturday night.

Rev. G. H. Brewer met his wife and children at the depot last night, they having come from Illinois. The fam-

This is experimental, and it is doubtful whether it will prove satisfactory. Three propositions seem to be generally agreed upon regarding convict labor:

Co.

Cal

com

Sties

Let

A. N.

riev

and was

par

and